Delaney Athletic Conference

MISSION STATEMENT

Delaney Athletic Conference (DAC) schools believe their primary objective is academic preparation, and that athletic programs are an integral part of the educational program and should provide quality opportunities for instruction, participation, character development and success

Philosophy

- We believe our athletic programs should provide development, training and competition at all levels, and allow the opportunity for players to participate as they gain skills.
- We believe our athletic programs offer a learning environment that is consistent with the overall educational goals of each member school.
- We believe admission to a Delaney Athletic Conference school should be based on each school's mission and academic standards, and not on the basis of a candidate's skill in a particular activity
- We believe sportsmanship and respect are central to the mission of the Delaney Athletic Conference. We expect that visitors will be treated with courtesy and visiting teams will act as honored guests.
- We believe each school assumes the responsibility to inform its constituency that the athletic arena is a place for friendly and spirited competition and respect for all who are part of that pageant.
- We believe member schools have a responsibility to work together to resolve differences that will arise from time to time. We have a responsibility to one another's programs and initiatives consistent with DAC goals.

Our Core Values

The League's stakeholders (student-athletes, coaches, parents, faculty, administrations, trustees) should know, value, and act upon our core values of respect, trust, humility, and balance.

By respect we mean: that we will play within both the letter and the spirit of the rules; that we treat all people involved in a contest (players, coaches, officials) with the same degree of respect with which we want to be treated; that we respect the unique nature and mission of each member school.

By trust we mean: that we trust that each member school and its constituents will abide by agreed upon policies and practices.

By humility we mean: that we will be gracious in victory and defeat, acknowledging the efforts of a worth opponent.

By balance we mean: that we work toward the development of the whole person, (physical, emotional, mental, social and spiritual).

The Delaney Athletic Conference was created in 1984 and named for Joe Delaney of the NFL Kansas City Chiefs football team, who drowned in a partially successful rescue of three children from a pond.

DELANEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE SPORTSMANSHIP CODE

Our players, coaches and spectators will strive to observe the following ideals of sportsmanship:

Our players, coaches and spectators will not take part in any yells that are derogatory to our opponents or in bad taste to spectators in general.

Our players, coaches and spectators will treat the officials, opposing teams and spectators as guests of our own school.

Our players, coaches and spectators will respect the property and reputation of our opponents, as well as, that of our own school.

In all cases, we will use good common sense, judgment and courtesies.

SPORTSMANSHIP

I. Sportsmanship Rule

Member schools are required to conduct all their relations with other schools in a spirit of good sportsmanship

The Member Institution Should:

1. Encourage and promote friendly relationships and good sportsmanship throughout the school by requiring courtesy and proper decorum at all times. Acquaint students and others in the community with the ideals of good sportsmanship and publicize these concepts and attitudes so all members of the school community will understand and appreciate their meanings.
2. Insist upon implicit compliance with all rules and regulations of the conference.
3. Insist upon adequate safety precautions for all activities, for both participants and spectators.
4. Provide adequate hygienic, sanitary and attractive facilities for the dressing and housing of visiting teams and officials.
5. Review with the staff the Sportsmanship Rule

The Coach Should:

1. Exemplify behavior that is representative of the educational staff of the school and a credit to the teaching profession.
2. Demonstrate high ideals, good habits and desirable attitudes in personal behavior and demand the same standards of the players
3. Emphasize to his/her players and bench personnel the importance of proper sideline behavior and the necessity of restraining from entering the playing field/court to engage in a fight.
4. Recognize that the purpose of competition is to promote the physical, mental, social and emotional well-being of the individual players and that the most important values of competition are derived from playing the game fairly

Delaney Athletic Conference

5. Be a modest winner and a gracious loser.
6. Maintain self-control at all times. Accept adverse decisions without public display of emotion or of dissatisfaction with the officials.
7. Cooperate with the school principal in the planning, scheduling and conducting sports activities.
8. Employ accepted educational methods in coaching. Give all players an opportunity to use and develop initiative, leadership and judgment.
9. Pay close attention to the physical condition and well-being of players. Refuse to jeopardize the health of an individual for the sake of improving his/her team's chances of winning
10. Teach athletes that it is better to lose fairly than to win unfairly.
11. Discourage gambling, profanity, abusive language and similar violations of the true sportsman's code.
12. Refuse to disparage an opponent, an official or others associated with sports activities and discourage gossip and questionable rumors concerning them.
13. Properly supervise student athletes under his/her immediate care and specifically observe a coach's responsibilities in conjunction with conference and state conferences.

The Student Should:

1. Be courteous to visiting teams and officials.
2. Play hard and to the limit of his/her ability, regardless of discouragement. The true athlete does not give up nor does he/she quarrel, cheat, bet or grandstand.
3. Retain his/her composure at all times and never leave the bench or enter the playing field/court to engage in a fight.
4. Be modest when successful and gracious in defeat. A true sportsman does not offer excuses for failure.
5. Maintain a high degree of physical fitness by observing team and training rules conscientiously.
6. Demonstrate loyalty of the school by maintaining a satisfactory scholastic standing and by participating in or supporting other school activities.
7. Play for the love of the game.
8. Understand and observe the rules of the game and standards of eligibility.
9. Set a high standard of personal cleanliness.
10. Respect the integrity and judgment of officials and accept their decisions without question.
11. Respect the facilities of host schools and the trust entailed in being a guest.

The Spectator Should:

1. Realize that he/she represents the school just as definitely as a member of a team and, therefore, has an obligation to be a true sportsman by encouraging, through his/her behavior, the practice of good sportsmanship by others.
2. Recognize that good sportsmanship is more important than victory by approving and applauding good team play, individual skill and outstanding examples of sportsmanship and fair play exhibited by either team.
3. Recognize that since the primary purpose of interscholastic athletics is to promote the physical, mental, social and emotional well-being of the players through the medium of contests, victory or defeat is, in reality, of secondary importance.
4. Treat visiting teams and officials as guests. Extend to them every courtesy.

Delaney Athletic Conference

5. Be modest in victory and gracious in defeat.
6. Respect the judgment and integrity of officials realizing that their decisions are based upon game conditions as they observe them and are given to the best of their ability.

2. Physical or verbal altercations or other unsportsmanlike conduct between players, coaches, spectators or officials.
3. Verbal abuse by players, coaches or spectators directed toward opposing teams, coaches, or officials.
4. Public criticism of officials by coaches in the media.
5. Coach ejection from a contest
6. Player ejection from a contest.

III. Violation of the Sportsmanship Rule

It will be the purpose of each member school to deal with minor sportsmanship violations internally.
